

TAMISHA

CIVIL

Democrat for Governor's Council

Tamisha is running for Governor's Council to be a voice for everyone who feels unheard by our criminal justice system. As your Councilor, she will:

- Prioritize Equal Justice. Tamisha will only vote for judges who want to address root causes of crime, rather than continuing overincarceration.
- Take on Domestic Violence. Tamisha has helped victims of domestic violence navigate our court system, and she will ensure they are heard.
- Address Substance Abuse. Tamisha believes addiction is a complex health issue requiring compassion and treatment — not punishment.

Vote for Tamisha Civil on September 3!

| My cousin was wrongfully imprisoned for 27 years. That’s why I’m running to stand against injustice and be a voice for change. |
—”

Tamisha Civil is a community advocate and 10-year public servant with vast experience working in our state’s courts. Tamisha’s career began as a response to her cousin’s false imprisonment, which motivated her to fix the deep inequalities in our justice system. Her experience now includes:

- Graduating from Northeastern University with a Master’s degree in Criminal Justice.
- Helping people safely re-enter society as an Associate Probation Officer.
- Supporting victims as a legal advocate at a domestic violence homeless shelter.
- Working as a Victim Witness Advocate at the Suffolk County District Attorney’s office.
- Serving in various mental health, drug, and juvenile courts throughout Massachusetts.

Tamisha has seen firsthand how our system can leave vulnerable people behind. As your Councilor, she will speak truth to power and make a change.
